

Contents

Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements, Conventions and Abbreviations	xiii
1. Introducing the Social Supernatural Simon Young and Davide Ermacora	1
2. Ireland: The Tribes of the Gods and the People of the Hills John Carey	18
3. The Isle of Man: ‘They Call Them the Good People’ Stephen Miller	32
4. England: Small Fairies Are Beautiful Fairies Jeremy Harte	51
5. Iceland: The Elves of Strandir Matthias Egeler	71
6. Scandinavia: My Neighbour the Troll Tommy Kuusela	87
7. The Netherlands: Witte Wieven and Other White Apparitions Yseult de Blécourt	107
8. Iberia: Moors, Gentiles and Encantadas José Manuel Pedrosa	122
9. France: Humanlike Societies and Spaces among the Fées Andrea Maraschi	138
10. German-Speaking Europe: Moosweiblein , Wichtel and Nixen Janin Pisarek and Florian Schaefer	155
11. The Hungarians: Heavenly and Earthly Fairy Societies Éva Pócs	173

12. Western Balkans: ‘A Vila Like a Vila ’ Dorian Jurić	196
13. Greece (and Italy): The Nereids, ‘Those from Outside’ Tommaso Braccini	217
14. The Balts: Laumēs and Laimēs Francis Young and Saulē Kubiliūtė	233
15. Ukraine: Courtship Rituals and Legends of the Bohyni Natalie Kononenko	243
Index	261